THE MEDIA An Exercise in Tyranny

WAR Staff Correspondent —

The first thing that you must realize about the Media (Television, Movies, Newspapers and Magazines, as well as mass-market books) is that all of the big, national networks, publishing houses, etc. are owned or controlled by the same small group of people. This same clique also controls a very large part of the banks, both here in the U.S. and world-wide.

Surrounding this core, there exists a collection of people, who are the writers, screen writers, publishers, editors, and producers of very nearly 90% of everything that the average American sees, hears, reads and wears. Some of these people are Jewish, or related to Jews or work for Jews, or are heavily influenced by Jews. However, there are tens of thousands of Jews who have nothing to do with this Power Elite, and so to call it an "International Jewish Conspiracy", (as was done in times gone by), is incorrect.

This small group, perhaps as small as 1,000 persons, is in total and complete control of all forms and levels of communications, including banking. This fact is usually hidden (or ignored by the "Powers that Be") behind a stupendous maze of multinational corporations and interlocking directorates. Furthermore, these people are rich. They are very rich and hence very powerful in politics, government and such.

The same group of individuals and families crop up again and again, practically everywhere in Broadcasting, Television, Motion Pictures, Recording companies, Book publishing, Newspaper publishing, National Magazines, Government, Politics, Banking, Defense Industries, etc. (Just to mention a few).

No, we're not being "anti-Semitic", we're just stating the facts. Check it out for yourself.

These are the "Eastern-Liberal Establishment", the C.F.R., the Trilateralists, the "Big Leagues" in money, power and influence. This influence even extends into Fashion, Cosmetics, Design, what passes for "Modern Art" and "Modern Dance".

1. ALL NATIONAL NETWORKS CONTROLLED OR OWNED BY A SMALL GROUP OF PEOPLE
2. THIS GROUP CONTROLS ALL LEVELS OF COMMUNICATION INCLUDING BANKING
3. THERE IS NO COMMITMENT TO INFORM THE PUBLIC.
4. ADVERTISING, MORE CORRECTLY - CALLED PROPAGANDA, WARPS REALITY
5. THE MEDIA BROADCASTS SPIRITUAL INTIMIDATION-POLITICAL INTIMIDATION
6. A SKILLFUL EDITOR CAN CONSTRUCT WORDS THAT WERE NEVER SPOKEN
7. PROMOTE THE NEGATIVE, DESTRUCTIVE ANTI-PERSONAL LIBERTY ASPECTS
8. TOP PROGRAMS AIMED TO DESTROY THE COMPETENT WHITE MIDDLE CLASS NUCLEUS
9. MINORITY PERSONS ARTIFICIALLY PROMOTED AS ROLE MODELS FOR YOUNG
10. CONCEAL MORE THAN THEY BROADCAST
11. MAKE IT A POINT TO NEVER SPECIFY RACE OF SUSPECT-UNLESS HE IS WHITE
12. THEY CANNOT STAND THINKING PATRIOTS WHO ARE UNAFRAID TO ASK QUESTIONS

These are the people who have enslaved virtually the entire American population, and who are in fact "Slaveholders" in all but name. These are the people who have raped the environment and assaulted Nature. These are the people who hate and fear anyone who can think for himself, and consequently they have a strangle-hold on education. They can not stand the free-thinking patriot who is unafraid to ask questions, and who has learned to free himself from the mental fetters of his would-be "Masters".

As far as the news media is concerned this small group exercises a very tight censorship, while giving the appearance of accessibility and responsiveness to public input. In times gone by, this censorship was both tighter and considerably more monolithic. Only recently has there been a few cracks in the wall of stoney silence that surrounds "controversial" subjects like "Sound Money", the basically unconstitutional creation and existence of the "Federal" Reserve System, a return to the Gold Standard, etc. Notice that what news stories there are on these subjects are universally superficial or even outright silly.

The second thing to realize about the media, and especially the news media, is that there is no commitment to inform the public. None whatever. Their commitment is to make money and increase their power and influence.

Grotesque news stories (true or not) sell! Yellow Journalism, as typified by William Randolph Hearst pays big. After 70 years or so of control, this clique has molded the American psyche to their liking. They can play the American public like a violin, and do so extremely well. Advertising (more correctly called propaganda) has been brought up to the level of a science, and when combined with their control of all of the mass means of communications, can and does warp reality and the public's perception of that reality to their own ends.

These are the people who have destroyed the dollar, and brought us the Income Tax (among others). These are the people who have whipsawed America into war after war, simply for personal gain. These are the people who invented "deficit spending" and gave us our National Debt. These are the people who have subverted the Constitution in dozens of instances. These are the people to whom the entire country and everything in it has been mortgaged.

From the Editor

Recently, your Editor appeared before a California state funded witch hunt investigating attacks (real or imagined) by wicked White people on non-Whites.

The Committee was sent out on its fanatical quest by the California Department of Fair Housing (for non-Whites, of course).

The Committee consisted of approximately 20 people; only four could be judged to be Aryan (White Caucasian). Of course, these four had long ago given up any claim to such a description. These were hard core, anti-White, Whites. If that term surprises you, I must be honest and say I have met many pro-White, non-Whites. (A classic example would be the Black man mentioned in the last chapter of "Camp of the Saints", by Jean Raspail available from Liberty Bell). On the Committee were also several Asians, a few Blacks and a few mestizos posing as Hispanics. Oh yes, you thought I forgot, didn't you? The ever present persecuted Jew, or two, or three.

There is something that always strikes me as bazaar. Most non-Whites drive up in modest machinery, while the persecuted Jew slides into his parking place in a late model Mercedes, purchased from the "evil Germans."

I and my aides, which included two members of the White Student Union, sat quietly listening to three cases of dastardly attacks on non-Whites by Whites.

In the motley crew of non-oath takers, which means one can make any charge whatsoever without fear of a perjury charge, even a mentally deficient informant, who has gained a small bit of fame by exposing the "massive murder" campaign by the notorious KKK, otherwise known as White Nationalists, trots out to bear his soul. The committee dutifully commends him on his brave act (for which he was well paid).

By this time several of the members appeared to be in a trance.

Finally, at the end of this exercise in sado-masochism, I was asked to speak, representing the White American Political Association, which I agreed to do.

I approached the podium, feeling as if I was coming before the Third World contingent of the U.N. or, at the very least, the alien bar scene in the original "Star Wars".

I told them that the majority of racial attacks were against White working people. I even offered to fill their hall with White victims or let them listen for an hour of local screams for help on a police scanner.

This civilized approach fell on deaf ears, but what is new? I have testified before several such committees and its always the same. White people? They don't get attacked, it's only non-Whites that are treated in such a manner!

As I and my aides left the hall, I was interviewed by local newspapers and television. The look even from White reporters was "Isn't this person odd. He came to speak for White workers. Poor fool, must be mad. Everyone knows White workers are doing great, at least I am and really that's all that counts." ☉

COMPUTER

W.A.R. COMPUTER TERMINAL

Several years ago I saw the possibilities that computer networks would offer the White Nationalist movement. I have always asserted that the electronic explosion could become a bastion of free speech that no central system could control. Now we have it; White Americans own hundreds of thousands of computers, VCRs and video cameras. That makes things a bit tough for dictators or would be dictators, such as those that occupy the central government.

The electronic revolution, fostered to make large profits, has now created a parallel revolution in political activism via the invisible electron. Already White Aryan comrades of the North have destroyed the free speech blackout to our Canadian comrades. So now our visions of a few years ago are coming true with the gradual defeat of monopoly control of publishing, tv, radio and theatre.

Col. Travis of Texas has spearheaded the electronic revolution in Texas, North Carolina and Idaho. Col. Travis is the title of honor I bestow on my friend, Louis Beam of Texas.

The following are the 24 hour telephone numbers for our information network. All those White workers embedded in the system network of police, fire, military that understand the problem, you now can maintain your closet support for White Nationalism with a very inexpensive computer, either fixed or portable. Tune in and charge up; destroy the Zionist Occupational System.

Black Crime Plague

SPECIAL REPORT FROM SOUTH AFRICA
By
Overseas WAR correspondent

The Danger

In recent years South Africa has seen an enormous increase in the crime rate. The rulers of the land disguise the causes of the crime wave just as the English press disguises the race of the vast majority of offenders. It is the aim of this article to employ a racial analysis in respect to crime in South Africa, and to draw out the undeniable correlations between race and crime. This relationship is evident not only in South Africa, or Africa, but throughout the world.

The Cover Up

Accurate and extensive statistics categorizing lawbreakers into racial categories are very scarce for a number of reasons, the foremost being the "public outcry" which inevitably follows any such report. There are cries of "racism" from indignant organizations, outraged individuals and sanctimonious newspapers. It is largely because of this orchestrated condemnation that revealing reports on race and crime are seldom undertaken (or when they are, they are not made public). This pattern varies slightly from country to country but remains more or less standard. In Britain in 1982, Scotland Yard released figures for robbery and violent robbery in the London area, indicating the race of the offenders. The figures showed of course that blacks committed the most crime, but the "public outcry" was such that it was decided to suppress similar figures in 1983. It was only due to the efforts of Harvey Procter M.P. that they were in fact released.

South Africa-Information and Disinformation

How then can the average South African ever hope to make any deductions as regards crime and race ratios? Reports detailing the race of the perpetrators are scarce and the newspapers, especially the English language ones, very seldom specify the race of an offender when reporting a crime. However, thanks to the cornerstones of Apartheid such as the Group Areas Act and the Prohibition of Mixed Marriages Act we are often able to deduce the race of the offender when his place of residence or name is mentioned. Unfortunately such information is only normally available when the offender is apprehended and brought to trial. In sharp contrast, when the offender is White, the papers do not hesitate to point out this fact. In the past couple of years a handful of White criminals have been given so many headlines and so much press coverage that it rivals that allocated to Princess Di & inflation. Names that spring to mind are Arthur Solomons (murderer 1982), Rodney Axe (rapist 1983), Philips and Grundlingh (murderers and murderer 1983) and the Stander bank robbers (1983/4). These White criminals have been given more publicity than thousands and thousands of non white criminals altogether merely because they are White. This emphasis on White criminals is just another manifestation of the anti-White bias of the media. Blacks may commit the most horrifying atrocities but with a few rare exceptions they will only receive a small news report in comparison with the White criminal.

SABC Television's "Police File" has undergone a subtle change so as not "to cause racial friction." - a development which is taking place in every aspect of South African society over which the government has control. When it was first televised, "Police File" was jokingly referred to as the "blacks and coloureds very own programme." Nowadays the compilation of criminals reflects an almost even balance between Whites, blacks and coloureds, despite the fact that Whites commit a negligible amount of crime in relation to blacks and coloureds.

The overall effect of the distorted media coverage is to create the idea and impression in the mind of the unsuspecting audience that there is no significant difference in the crime rates between the races, and that those crime rates do not bear any relationship at all to race. This is a totally false picture of reality. In truth, non-Whites are far worse law-breakers than Whites and the extent of their crime makes White crime pale in comparison. Moreover the nature of the crime correlates to a high degree with race. Any episode of the above mentioned "Police File" programme substantiates this, for although there is an artificially arranged numerical equality between Whites, blacks and Coloureds, the organizers cannot disguise the fact that White crimes are generally non-violent (eg. fraud, car theft, etc.) while non-White crime are generally violent (eg. rape, armed robbery, murder, etc.).

The Nature of Non-White Crime

The striking correlation between the race of the offender and the violence involved in the crime is quite astounding. Besides "Police File" we can find further proof of this by examining newspaper reports and then applying the "names and addresses" method of racial identification. Once again there is irrefutable evidence that non-whites have a proclivity towards violent crime while Whites do not. There are of course exceptions on both side but the general trends are overwhelming.

Rape is a violent crime and possibly the most degenerate and disgusting of all crimes. Many women would rather be killed than raped and have to live a life ruined psychologically and perhaps physically. The Cape Times newspaper "The Cape Times" of 8th October 1981 carried a report on the numbers of rapes as reported to police stations in the Western Cape. They were as follows:

No. of rapes: Pop. group:

102	African
90	Coloured
68	Coloured
64	Coloured
62	Coloured
62	Coloured
60	Coloured
57	Coloured
51	Coloured
7	(White with
6	large non-
5	white
4	population)
1	White

The number of rapes increases proportionately with the increase in the non-white inhabitants. In Pinelands, an all White suburb, there was only one rape. In Sea Point, a White suburb with a large number of illegal non-white inhabitants there were seven rapes. In coloured and black areas, rapes soared, the highest being in the black area of Guguletu with 102. Of course, rapes committed in White areas are often committed by non-whites & are often accompanied by extreme violence, sadism and perversion.

OUR SYMBOL OF FREEDOM

Immigrants helped build this country. But immigration that is out of control could destroy it. Every year hundreds of thousands enter the United States illegally. Because there has been no serious effort to stop them. And in 1980, we took in 750,000 refugees and legal immigrants. Aside from the additional demands this places on our land, water, and energy, this could mean one million more workers to compete for jobs every year. With unemployment presently at 8%. And 30% in the case of minority youth. Americans have sacrificed to save energy. But what has been saved from the 55 mph speed limit has been offset by the additional demands of just two years' influx of immigrants. Americans have sacrificed to have smaller families. But if immigration continues at current levels, it will add 70,000,000 people to the U.S. population. In just fifty years. What sacrifices will our children have to make if immigration continues unchecked?

The Statue of Liberty was a gift from France, bearing the date of the Declaration of Independence, on a tablet in her arms. Most Americans today believe that the Statue is a beacon welcoming non-White immigrants-because of a plaque placed on the base 22 years later thru Jewish pressure. This deceptive representation should be removed during the restoration of our American symbol of liberty and independence. Write to the French-American Committee for the Restoration of the Statue of Liberty, Washington, D.C. and ask to have this plaque removed.

Mulatto?

WAR Staff Correspondent

In George Orwell's seminal book "1984", we learn about a concept known as "newspeak" whereby the Big Brother force substitutes labels that have built-in propaganda values for old-fashioned words which accurately described events and people.

The word "gay" comes to mind. I have overheard the real beautiful people of these United States - (not the Hollywood whore-scum) - but the White Christian elderly farmers, comment on this. One blue-eyed couple who have farmed together in the Northeast for 45 years and almost look like twins from their shared struggles told this reporter that they thought the old-fashioned use of the word "gay" was great.

"It was a wonderful word. It described a very special feeling of wholesome, lighthearted joy. Now it's been ruined. We hesitate to use it" the old farm woman told me.

Our people should never use "gay" to describe the sick queers. This is exactly what the mixed-up, mixmasters want us to do—to have to relate to the world through their rigged, newspeak terminology. Big Brother knows that by getting us to do so, a subtle, psychological advantage is conveyed to Big Brother's side. When referring to these wretched sexual perverts we should say "queer", "homos" or "pervert". If we have to speak formally we can say "homosexual". But even to use the word "gay" in quotation marks to describe the faggot-freaks is a victory for them.

Another newspeak word Orwell would have hated is "holocaust". Did anyone notice that this word descended almost from thin air around 1972? Before that it was always just "Hitler's genocide" or "the six million". But those phrases lacked the proper traumatizing, ontological monopoly that the Jews claim for their own contretemps.

But a holocaust by dictionary definition means "a burning" and there was no mass death of Jews by fire in WWII. There were authentic holocausts in WWII — the firebombings of German cities such as Hamburg and Dresden by allied air force planes, which resulted in the deaths of hundreds of thousands of women and children. Historian David Irving points out that many of the pilot's diaries referred to these bombings as a "holocaust"—right in the diaries of the allied bomber pilots. But in 1984 no one would even know what one was talking about if a reference to the "holocaust against the Germans" was mentioned. The Jews have monopolized the phrase.

Also notice that the world's news media has conspired to label what the Zionists say happened in WWII, as a holocaust with a capital "H", as in "The Holocaust". Without any panel of English-language usage experts voting or debating this, it has somehow been forced into our language.

The implications are enormous. Some hidden elite has managed to push this "The Holocaust" description on the gas chamber hoax of WWII. This description implies that no one else suffered like the Jews in all history. No other slaughter of any other people is referred to as "The Holocaust" with a capital "H"—not the slaughter of 60 million Whites by Jew - Communist secret police ("Cheka-NKVD-KGB"), not the slaughter of 70 million Chinese by Mao (cf. Guinness Book of World Records) and so forth. The Jews, who regard themselves as the chosen of Abraham, even in defiance of the New Testament (see John, Chpt. 8 in any Bible printed before 1950), have forced the world, through newspeak techniques, to view their suffering as the worst ever, and thereby putting everyone on a guilt-trip, and gouge humanity for even more bags of money and bodies of U.S. Marines for the hegemony of Israel and its 600% inflation rate.

Perhaps T.V. has dulled our minds to such an extent that we don't clearly recognize the pitfalls and tricks inherent in the use of these newspeak terms.

But what about the current labeling of Miss America?

Miss America used to be the symbol of the exalted spiritual and sexual purity and chastity of the White woman, the envy of the world for her beauty and fidelity to hearth and home.

Then a mulatto named Vanesa Williams won the contest. She has since disgraced it by acting like a typical negro of shoddy morals, by performing lesbian sex acts on camera, which were subsequently published in a pro-Zionist magazine, "Penthouse."

True to our upside-down world, the runner up Miss America who inherited the crown after Williams was asked to resign, is also a mulatto.

"Now wait a minute", you say. "What is this mulatto's stuff? These women are Black".

They are? If you think that, you have been watching too much T.V. Big Brother may describe them as Black, but they are obviously not Black-skinned or even dark-brown.

They are lightly coffee-colored, almost White. They have mostly White features, except for flaring, baboon nostrils on Williams and swollen lips on the replacement Miss Ubangi-America.

Big Brother still cannot push a midnight Black, half-ape, negro girl on White America and call her beautiful. The obvious disparity between the looks of the girl and the title of the pageant would be too great.

So, instead, Big Brother finds some semi-White woman who has three drops of negro blood from some distant grandparent, puts the Miss America crown on her head and shouts out, "Here she is, Miss America and she's Black and ain't Black beautiful?"

Fifty years ago they could never have gotten away with this. The word mulatto had not been tossed down the "memory hole" yet. Mulattos were not accepted as White. They were pitied as the poor, half-breed freaks that they were. White people kept their marrying-age children away from mulattos because they knew that genetically, even a coffee-skinned mulatto could still, technically, produce a coal-black pick-a-ninny baby from the ancestral "woodpile", even when mating with a White wife or husband. It is not likely, but possible nonetheless.

Old time Americans were into calling a spade a spade and a mulatto a mulatto.

This is the way the Establishment has of pawning Black power and Black integration on us—by getting us to accept the idea of Black "beauty" and Black sexuality by trotting out a 4/5's White woman who's 1/5 Black and calling her "Black". But Black is not beautiful (except maybe on its home turf in Africa where it belongs). I mean, if Black is beautiful how come mulattos like "Prince" and Michael Jackson, who are regarded as among the most attractive "Blacks", are among the lightest-skinned mulattos masquerading as Blacks? If Black is beautiful why do Michael Jackson and "Prince" straighten their hair and get nose-job surgery performed to make them look like White boys?

Because Orwell was right and it's 1984. Wake up, White people! O

RIGHT WORD FOR "ANTI-SEMITISM" NEVER A SECRET TO CLERGY

What are the correct terms for "anti-Semitism" "anti-Semite" and "anti-Semitic"? The Oxford English Dictionary is regarded throughout the world by leading institutions of higher learning as the most authentic source of data on the origins and definitions of words in the English language. The data which follows here is all taken from the most recent edition of the Oxford English Dictionary. The Oxford English Dictionary does not define "anti-Semitism". The reason is obvious. The Oxford English Dictionary offer either "anti-Judaist" or "Judaephobe" as the correct term for "anti-Semite", and either "anti-Judaism" or "Judaephobe" as the correct terms for "anti-Semitism". The Oxford English Dictionary offers "anti-Judaist" as the correct term for "anti-Semitic". Wherever and whenever Jews use "Semitism" they know they should use "Judaism". Wherever and whenever Jews use "Semite" they know they should use "Judaist". Wherever Jews use "Semitic" Jews know they should use "Judaic". It also confounds confusion to refer to Jesus Christ as a "Jew" for He was actually a so-called "Jews" today were neither the race, the religion or the nation which "gave" Jesus Christ to the world. Either Jesus Christ was a "Jew" and there are no "Jews" today or there are "Jews" today and Jesus Christ was not a "Jew". words more difficult to pronounce. Jews like to represent themselves as "Jews" and refer to Jesus Christ as a "Jew". Jews believe that "things equal to the same thing are equal to each other" so they masquerade as "Jews" hoping thereby to establish kinship with Jesus Christ.

How Christianity Triumphed

By REX TIRO

More and more this country is seeing legions of "unchurched" people each year and that's because they know something about the origin of their religion. Now for those who still cling to their superstitions I offer the following information on the origin of Christianity.

It is true that Christianity triumphed in the fourth century in spite of the powerful cults of Mithra, Isis, and Serapis. Martyrs and Christian teaching had nothing to do with securing the triumph. In point of fact in the official "Calendar of the Popes" the third century "had no single chapel of any sort" and "miracles of Jesus were unknown to the Christians themselves for the first three hundred years." If the "martyrs," "Christian teachings," and the "miracles" had no effect on the triumph of Christianity, what did?

We must now turn to the Emperor Constantine to see the first phase of Christian triumph. No need here for Roman history except to say that Christians such as Eusebius, "father of ecclesiastical history," Lactantius, and St. Ambrose provide us with information of the time.

Constantine, born around 288, was an illegitimate son, had his wife Fausta and illegitimate son Crispus, and his nephew, murdered in 326 A.D. He remained head-Pontifex Maximus, or Sovereign Pontiff of the old Roman religion and deferred his baptism until the approach of death in 337. "He established the principle of persecution of the old religion, and his massive generosity to the Church lifted it in twenty years to a position it had never dreamed" (How Christianity Triumphed p.20). On page 25, Constantine "showed a wealth of gold and privileges upon the Church. A stream of gold flowed from the palace, and new churches..began to rise...ordinary citizens were rewarded with a baptismal robe and a piece of gold.." Constantine ended his days "in effeminate robes, laden with jewels, crowned by a mass of false hair..among the women and priests who now converted by means of his money and favor" (Ibid).

The second great instrument in securing the triumph of Christianity was a series of boy-emperors. After Constantine had joined the shades of the dead, the empire was divided between his three illegitimate sons. Constantius, being the most religious of the three brothers, issued, in the years of 341, the savage edict decreeing the sentence of death for the exercise of pagan religion. The sentence can be read in Schultze's "Law in the Theodosian Code."

One effort was made to check the advance of Christianity and that was the short reign of Julian "the Apostate." He wrote much against Christianity during his two and a half years of rule. He was replaced by Valentinian, a Christian. He died in 375 with Christianity having no more appeal than any other religion.

It is to the youthful Gratian that we must now turn our attention. Under the influence of the priests he established Christianity in Europe. In 382 "Gratian confiscated the revenues and property of temples, annulled all the privileges of the priests.." (Ibid). St. Augustine was in Rome at that time and he saw the wild procession through the streets, while Rome looked on, of the priests of Cybele. He tells us in his Confessions, VIII, 2 that "nearly the whole of the Roman nobles were pagans."

A new age of violence and death had set in from the year 381. "In 381, 382, 383, and 391 stringent decrees were passed for the suppression of all religions but Christianity" (The Bible in Europe, p.17).

Theodosius became the chief instrument in the imposition upon the world of the new religion. He fell under the influence of St. Ambrose and the monks. Through this man and the boy-emperor Gratian, the bishops entered upon their final campaign against paganism, just as modern right wing religious fanatics are doing to control our government today.

The years 384 and 386 mark the downfall of paganism. In 386 Theodosius sent troops to close the temples of Egypt, where Greek and Egyptian cults still flourished. "Under the protection of his soldiers the fanatical monks and priests led their followers to storm rival places of worship (pagans) and requisite buildings and statues were soon in ruin" (How Christianity Triumphed,p.49). Today about 95% of the statues seen in any museum have arms, legs, heads or noses broken off, the damage having been done by Christian mobs. The great library of Alexandria, housing some 500,000 books, did not escape the mob. Only in less insane localities the great temples were converted into Churches. Many of today's Churches in Rome are former pagan temples.

How did paganism die out? It took Christianity almost one hundred years of imperial resources and fifty years of pagan persecutions to destroy it. On the eve of the Fall of Rome, the church, at the death of the fanatical Theodosius, was in control of the youthful "rulers". And then it happened.

The terrible barbarians swept down on Rome and in August of the year 410 A.D. it was all over. The Christian Emperor fled, leaving the remaining pagans an hour of freedom. The story of Rome was over. Christian priests survived the ruin. "Fresh sentences of death issued from the imperial clerical temples were sealed...Paganism, when it went down to Hades, took civilization with it" (Ibid, p.52).

From the above history it seems that the White Race must not allow itself to be swept down like Rome. We must stand up and fight. Dipping into history, supporting W.A.R., helping build the computer fund is my way of showing what I think of the Great Movement to save the White Race from our rainbow barbarians. ☉

WHITE AMERICAN RESISTANCE - WAR

There are hundreds of people who receive WAR who never do anything at all to spread the good word of Nationalism to their White racial sisters and brothers.

Today our movement is small. We lack manpower and economic support. If we are ever to become a powerful movement, capable of exercising a positive influence on the future of our race, every single person on our mailing list will have to take an active part in spreading the message of White Power to our people.

We are asking all who receive WAR to pledge to distribute at least one piece of WAR literature a day throughout 1984. If everyone on our mailing list does this, hundreds of thousands of our White people who have never had any contact with us will be introduced to the WAR movement. Some of these will go on to take an active role in our struggle for a White future.

One piece of literature a day - that is all we ask for a minimum commitment. One business card one leaflet, one sticker, one poster, one copy of WAR - the choice is yours. It is simple; it is easy. It is not time-consuming or expensive.

Here are some suggestions:

- (1) Mail a leaflet to a White person;
- (2) Leave a copy of WAR in your neighborhood laundromat;
- (3) Put a mini-sticker somewhere where other Whites will see it;
- (4) Place a business card in racial books in the library;
- (5) Thumbtack a leaflet or business card on the bulletin board at work, school, the library, community center, etc.;
- (6) Leave a copy of WAR or WAPA folder in a waiting room, or put a leaflet or card in other magazines;
- (7) The really ambitious can sell WAR on the street corner, or they can distribute it door-to-door in some White neighborhood.

SPECIAL NOTE: Do not waste WAR literature by distributing it to Jews, Blacks or other non-Whites. Our goal is to awaken and recruit White people - not to antagonize other races.

WHO KNOWS HOW MANY White people there are today who are angry and frustrated with the decline of our race & nation and would join our struggle if they could only be put in touch with us? Ten thousand? A hundred thousand? A million? LET'S FIND OUT!

WHAT THE PRESS FAILED TO TELL YOU ABOUT BABY FAE

- (1) Cross species organ transplants among animals have been attempted unsuccessfully for years.
- (2) Thousands of hearts are available from aborted babies each week.

There was absolutely no reason for such an experiment except for some maniac pipe dreaming.

Jews cry continuously about the alleged crimes of Dr. Mengela on the prison patients, but seem to gravitate to similar experimentation.

Soviet Moles

WAR Staff Correspondent

In order to understand the habits of Soviet moles, we must understand the new Soviet aristocracy. Parkinson, author of Parkinson's Law, has pointed out that Russia is ruled by an aristocracy just as arrogant and ill-mannered as the aristocracy which gathered around Louis XVI at Versailles. They never wait in line for anything. They ride in ZIL limosines with a chauffeur and a footman. If a Soviet biggie wants to make a fast trip from the Kremlin to his dacha in the country, he orders the streets cleared of traffic and orders his chauffeur to drive 100 km per hour. All traffic lights are green to him and red for the people on side streets. The children of the aristocracy attend schools which the common people do not even know exist. The aristocrats do their shopping in stores which the common people are not even allowed to enter.

The "Red Russia" of American anti-communist propaganda is a fictitious country which does not exist on this planet or any other. Indeed, The USA today is also a fictitious country, a creation of false Right Wingers, lying Left Wingers, Jewish journalists, humbugs, frauds, quacks, swindlers, and charlatans. The United Jewish Colonies of America has become a wicked nation, a menace to the whole future of our species.

What does a Soviet mole do amidst this chaos? If he is a real Marxist-Leninist, he is an aristocratic type. He has little use for the Western Left, which is Trotskyite and anti-Russian. He is not anti-Semitic in terms of religious bigotry, but he is against Zionism and Jewish World schemes. Some organizations, such as the World Council of Churches, are openly pro-Soviet. But the mole tries to turn non-communist or even anti-communist activities to Soviet advantage. The Soviet mole is always unrelentingly anti-Zionist. The Soviet mole almost never comes from the working class, but is almost always a person of high rank.

The Soviets are not likely to be interested in the American Far Right. The Far Right is a thoroughly cornball little sideshow far over on the remote sidelines of the American society. The power brokers and agents provocateur who control the Far Right hold it down to the sub-moron level. The Soviet mole will be found at a higher level than this.

The Soviets know that they need not bother much about the destruction of America. The USA is already being destroyed by the Jews, the niggers, the Liberals, the conservatives, the rich, the poor, the crime syndicates, the preachers, the mass media, the dope peddlers, the pimps, the employers, the unions, the schools, the literary rabble, and the Trotskyites. "Come with me and see the condemnation of the Great Harlot who sits upon the many waters...."

Of course the Soviet Union is solidly hostile to the West and determined to wipe out the West. The Soviet rulers are quite right in assuming that the West is now totally decadent and headed toward internal collapse. The Americans were once a great people. It is regrettable that they have degenerated into a bawling herd of two-legged cattle owned by the Jews. The present degenerate rulers of America are not even competent to maintain public order. Toward the end of the century, our civilization will be sacked by its own barbarians generated from within, by the mobs of rapists, looters, and arsonists which are already beginning to form on the lower levels of our degenerate, quack-led, crime-ridden society. When the USA goes under, Israel will also go under within 24 hours. When the USA is out of the Eastern Hemisphere, Russia can occupy Israel by long distance telephone.

the only real question about the average American politician today is whether he should be classified as a cretin, an idiot, an imbecile, or a moron. Actually, the cretinous rabble of politicians who have turned America into a Jew-nigger banana republic are all criminally insane. ●

THE GENETIC THEORY

Those who espouse the genetic theory are often labeled "racists" by those who deny the theory's validity:

When used in this sense, the word becomes an epithet and is both incorrect and abusive. Such name calling is a true measure of the weakness in the argument of those who would deny the evidence encompassed by the genetic theory.

WAR Staff Correspondent NY 12/84-

Whether New York City is a dying hulk, tottering on its last legs, a still-thriving, dynamic metropolis, or something in-between depends on who you listen to or — if you're the type to make up your own mind — where you're standing. From a perch in the South Bronx, overlooking rows of burned-out tenements, one would have to conclude that the city is fit only to be nuked and razed. From mid-town Manhattan, amid the bustle of commerce, the sound of construction from scores of newly-rising office buildings, and the "beautiful people" from all over the world, you might reach a different conclusion. To my own way of thinking (and I've thought about it a lot, having lived here for a decade) whatever New York is, whatever her future, her skyscrapers are runes, cast over the landscape, that tell the probable future for the nation, for this one fact cannot be denied: the same people who have held the reins in New York City for many years are increasingly the power to reckon with in the rest of the country; the racial dynamic here — number of the Irish, of course, scattered about the city; the Irish brogue is still heard now and again in an Irish bar or from an Irish cop. Jews are everywhere: two and a half million of them; New York is the Jew capital of the world. Of course, as you would expect, they are in solid control, long and well ensconced into media, government, and just about everything else except manual labor. Whatever is wrong or right about the city has to be blamed on or credited to the Jews; their power here is complete.

If you've been thinking about moving here and renting a Manhattan apartment, forget about it unless you're very well heeled. An efficiency (and that means one room) will set you back from $400 to $1000 or more per month, if you can find one, which you probably can't without paying a broker 15% of a year's rent. If the trend to co-op conversions continues, there will be no rentals in Manhattan and few in the rest of the city in the coming years. Buying isn't cheap either; a good-sized place in a secure building in a reasonable

White, is not as bad as the popular wisdom around the rest of the country would have it. It's not difficult to stay out of neighborhoods in which you'd have an increased chance of being mugged, or to stay off of lonely streets, or out of empty subway cars late at night. For the average, reasonably strong appearing man, these are the only kinds of precautions needed. For those who fall more into the category of prey — weak, sick, or old — a sharp eye is a definite necessity. Just as the liberals are always saying, Blacks make up most of the victims of Black crime; that's because they live around Blacks, of course. Were Blacks to be segregated into their own areas, and given control of their own criminal justice system, I have no doubt that they — who are sicker of their criminal kinfolk than we are — would make short work of Blacks who prey on their neighbors. (But that's a dream for another time.)

THE PUBLIC SCHOOL SYSTEM IS AN UNMITIGATED DISASTER. HERE ARE THE FRUITS OF INTEGRATION and the organization of teachers into Jewish-

●●:: That decayin' town ●●::

- a WHITE MIDDLE CLASS FLEEING BEFORE A LARGER AND LARGER HORDE OF BLACK AND BROWN INVADERS — IS THE RACIAL DYNAMIC OF AMERICA — HOW CAN WE PRETEND THAT AMERICA WILL WAIT LONG BEFORE FOLLOWING NEW YORK CITY TO THE GRAVE.

Many people from small towns cannot imagine how others — particularly other Whites — can live in a big metropolis without going mad. The answer lies in the fact that every large city, New York included, divides itself into neighborhoods which, for the inhabitants, become much like small towns, each pushed up against another. Each neighborhood has its own individual character, its citizens tend to develop a locally-based patriotism and become familiar with others from the neighborhood whom they meet in local stores and on the street. The city, thereby, does not seem as strange, as lonely, to its citizens as it seems to outsiders. When someone asks, "How can you live in such a place?", the first answer is always, "Well, it's a lot different than you might think."

There aren't very many Nordics around. The most conspicuous are those in Manhattan who came to town from somewhere West to hit it big in business, the theater or modeling. The aspiring, statuesque blond model stands out on the street in New York, contrasted against the horde of Blacks, Browns, Mediterranean Whites and Jews. There are still a neighborhood (which means not too many Blacks and Browns) will cost $100,000.

Large parts of Manhattan are being quickly gentrified. This is a process in which the Jewish landlords run off their Black and Brown poor, renovate the buildings, and then either sell the apartments as co-ops or rent them at sky-high prices. The only people who can afford to live in them are single professionals or homosexuals who don't have a family to spend their money on. Small businessmen — green-grocers, dry-cleaners and the like — are forced out by incredible rent increases (a hike from $400 a month to $3000 is not uncommon) as leases expire. Singles bars, boutiques, and other businesses which (apparently) bring in a lot more money by catering to the whims of the new class, replace the old establishments. There is no denying that the process creates neighborhoods in which the average White person feels safer; I, for one, find it difficult to feel a sense of loss for the Black and Puerto-Rican communities that are pushed out. And yet, the replacements don't seem much better. For me, at least, there is a sense of emptiness in the gentrified neighborhoods. White homosexuals, young ambitious Jews, and fun-loving singles do not create a sense of community that I can — or desire to — share.

The crime problem, for the average controlled unions. The vast majority of the public-school students are non-White. There are still a few scattered elementary schools around the city where a child can get some semblance of an education without getting mugged every other day for his lunch money, but they're getting harder to find. Parents use every ruse in the book to work their kids into a halfway decent school.

SOME PARENTS USE ADDRESSES OF KINFOLK ACROSS THE GEORGE WASHINGTON BRIDGE — HERE IS, INDEED, A NEW AND DIFFERENT MEANING TO THE CONCEPT OF BUSING.

There are a couple of excellent (so we're told) high schools for "exceptional" students, which means a majority of Whites and Orientals. These schools, such as Bronx Science and Stuyvesant High School, admit students by examination, taking only the best few. For everyone who has a child who can't, for one reason or another, be enrolled in one of the few decent schools left, the alternatives are simple: private school or move. Private school is expensive: $4000 a year per child is not unusual. Catholics can send children to parochial schools, which are said to be better, but they are increasingly filled by lower-middle-class Blacks. The common solution is a move to New Jersey, Connecticut, or Westchester County when the children get to Jr. High age, if not before. All-White schools can still be found in the suburbs.

There is, occasionally, a good teacher to be found but they are few and far between. Ask yourself what kind of person would risk life and limb every day teaching violence-prone Blacks and Hispanics who, quite often, cannot even be taught to speak clearly, not to mention to read or write, and this for a salary below that of many secretaries and clerks, and you have an idea of who New York's teachers are. They are unionized, very liberal (if not left-radical) in outlook, deigned to work beyond their assigned hours or to take work home, not particularly intelligent or incisive and — generally — more interested in propagandizing their students than teaching them anything. My son had one good teacher in elementary school; she was Chinese. (Many of the best public school students in the system are Chinese and Korean, as well.)

I work for a big company, in an office. This is typical work for a Manhattanite, which I was for many years, or a commuter, which I am now. I spend a lot of time talking to Jews on the phone, about money. (They say if you can live in New York, you can live anywhere. I don't know about that, but I'd say if you can hold your own with Jews on the subject of money, you should be able to talk to anyone about anything.) The money doesn't go as far here, but it doesn't come as far, either; pay, across the board, is high. Company benefits are good, sometimes incredible. At my company, they'll pay me back 50% of the cost of a pottery class or a course in Zen meditation. If I can show this somehow relates to my job, they'll pay back 100%. Amazing but true! People work seven-hour shifts, and take hour and a half lunches. Dress tends to be more informal than in most other parts of the country where I've been. All in all, for a white-collar worker like me, New York City working conditions are wonderful. The only problem is, the work is in New York City. What it's like for the Irish and Italians who live in Queens and work at blue-collar jobs, I couldn't say, except that people I know who do that sort of thing make a hell of a lot more money than I do. It's union work and it pays well.

Those who, for one reason or another, are fed up but still want to work in the city, commute. They either take trains out of Penn Station or Grand Central or, if they live in Jersey, they take a bus from the Port Authority Bus Terminal, a newly-renovated but still wino-ridden pesthole on the city's Westside. Commuting can be a serious obstacle to a happy life up here; lines are long, buses slow and hot, drivers rude, prices high. But, in the end, living in a predominately-White community is generally worth it, at least for awhile. The town I live in overlooks the Hudson, just across from Harlem, yet there are only a handful of Blacks in its high school of 1700 students. Why? For one thing, it's predominately Italian. You can say what you like about Italians, (and I've said it all at one time or another), but, as a friend at my health club once said, "they know a nigger when they see one".

And yes, Virginia, there is something good to say about New York City. Let me oversimplify just slightly: if you have enough money, you can have a hell of a good time here. (If you don't, stay away!) The theatre, dominated by Jewish producers and White homosexual artists is largely crap, but the museums are excellent. The opera is probably the best in the world, although a decent seat at the Met will set you back fifty bucks. Those who like to eat, and can afford to eat well, can live out every fantasy. It has been said that one could eat at a different restaurant in the city every day and never run out; they open that fast. For those with a modicum of intelligence, skill, and energy, opportunity abounds. Part-White Blacks and Hispanics in various White collar fields find the city to be a treasure-trove these days. Companies want to hire "minorities" to suit the Feds and their unions, so they are generally on the look-out for the smarter and more attractive mixed-race applicants. (Big-lipped "street-niggers" need not apply, thank you.) It is harder for White, male workers under 40 who don't fit any "minority" classifications, but few go hungry. There are so many places to work, and so many incompetents working in them, that a person with talent is always quickly discovered. One good method to find a decent job here is to work for a temporary agency and just move around until you hit the right spot. It generally doesn't take long. Over everything there's a kind of "vibration", "something in the air" that gives the city its own particular life and energy. For many, this becomes addictive and is enough of a reason to stay.

What future for New York City? If

IT'S TOO LATE HERE. NOTHING CAN BE DONE. GET ALL THE WHITES OUT AND NUKE IT, WHO CARES? SAVE THE METROPOLITAN; (FORGET THE MODERN), SAVE THE SETS FROM THE OPERA, AND BE SURE TO GET SOME GOOD FILM ON THE END IT FINALLY CAME TO.

the trend continues, it will become more Black, more Brown, and even more controlled by the Jews, if the latter is possible. Old timers will tell you that this was a pretty decent place to live back in the forties, when there were still a lot of Whites around. Those days are gone; the sidewalks are mud-colored, only accented with White. The walls are graffiti-smear, the welfare lines are, well, here's the current joke: "What's long and Black?" Answer: "The welfare line." The Jews who run the place, not to mention running much of the rest of the country from this place, are still on every side of every issue but one, on which they all agree: racism is evil. Meanwhile, the city drowns under a flood of inferior peoples.

Can't everyone see this, you ask? Yes, many people, who have not totally burned out their thinking processes with Jewish ideology do. But few will admit what they think, or discuss it. There is just too much to lose. In the white-collar canyons of Manhattan, there is a certain smile, seen in all the elevators. It is totally phoney. It says, "Everything is just fine." Of course, everything is not just fine, everything is getting worse everyday but no one can say anything about it, much less do anything about it because that wouldn't be right. Racism, in any form, is evil. Any ethic except "all men are created equal" is suspect. All non-Jewish thought is to be avoided. To be an open racist here is to be ostracized, not only from one's job but by one's acquaintances. Thought-crime is a reality that the New York racist, who moves in any but the lowest class circles, must live with. Here, 1984 has arrived, in spades. (Excuse the pun.)

Don't laugh at us. Your time is coming soon, if it hasn't already. New York can only hold so many Blacks and Browns. The same Jews who live here (mostly in all-white suburban communities, by the way) are propagandizing you via the New York T.V. networks, magazines and newspapers, selling every useless product under the sun, and generally making your life less worth living, and — perhaps — your grandchildren's lives impossible. Look just a few years down the road, and your community is New York City.

It's too late here. Nothing can be done. Get all the Whites out and nuke it, who cares? Save the paintings (at least those from the Metropolitan; forget the modern), save the sets from the opera, and be sure and get some good film on the place so we can remember the end it finally came to. It's too late. Nobody who lives here is going to even try to do anything, because anyone who is racially-conscious and is of a mind to activate himself or herself will realize very quickly that this is a lost cause and flee. It's too late, but don't laugh. New York is coming to your area soon. Watch for it!

IT'S TOO LATE, BUT DON'T LAUGH — NEW YORK IS COMING TO YOUR AREA SOON. WATCH FOR IT!

"The Authorities" or "Government" are no defense from these people; they own the government, lock, stock and barrel, and not just the U.S. government either. This same gang has spread its tentacles to dozens of other governments as well. Government is usually the means by which they exercise their control.

The above goes a long way toward explaining why the media is so universally hyper-liberal. Their masters don't want to expose anyone to the idea that it is even possible to escape their net (much less beneficial). This also explains the universally low grade of sewage passed off on the television audience as "entertainment". Look at the alleged top ten "sit-coms". They are all virtually identical. They all glorify the stupid, gross, violent, sexist, low-class "minority" life-style, every one of them. Some of them are more open about it, others, less so, but they all have the same trust: destroy the educated, competent, white, middle-class family nucleus.

In order to do this, and to degrade the standard of living here in the U.S., they actively promote all of the negative, destructive, anti-personal liberty aspects of the American culture, and when these aspects are missing, they manufacture them. The black 12% of the population get 65% (and more) of the air time. These (and other "Minority") persons are artificially promoted as "leaders" of the American culture, and as role models for White children, by this powerful clique, because it helps to erode the White majority's self-esteem, identity, self-image, creativity and will to resist. They seek to bring everyone down to the same bestial, non-thinking, subservient level. All in the name of "equality", of course. If they ever succeed in doing this, they will be the defacto rulers of the world, or what's left of it.

As with the crumbling, decadent Roman Empire, they promise the masses "Bread and Circuses", welfare instead of jobs, "security" instead of freedom, "Entertainment" instead of Education, massive taxation and inflationary fiat money instead of sound currency, coddled criminals and un-safe streets instead of justice, a disarmed, cowering, cringing populace instead of an involved, alert, self-reliant citizenry.

At least 10 major civilizations in the history of the world have decayed and collapsed upon themselves in exactly this manner. Absolutely all of the symptoms are presently apparent in the American social, political and economic scene.

What has all this to do with religion? Plenty. Virtually all of the big money T.V. preachers work hand in glove with the power elite preaching the same set of false values, tolerance, equality, roll-over-and-play-dead and let the clowns walk all over you, pseudo Christianity. The alleged Christianity that these pseudo ministers are preaching (and getting millions of dollars for doing so) bears little if any resemblance to the original precepts of genuine Christianity.

Layered in with this propaganda are generous doses of intimidation and implied guilt, all necessary to keep the "sheeple" docile and productive (for donations, that is).

This effect of organized, structured "religion" can be more easily seen if one will look at the role of religion in the Third World. Here, the single most significant factor in keeping the populace poor, ignorant, weak and ineffectual is the church. In some other Third World countries, it is the church that builds and supports revolution and violence. Look at the differences between Nicaragua and El Salvador and Chile. Compare these to Mexico, especially rural Mexico.

The media in these countries is just as closed and irresponsible to the actual needs of the people as is ours; it just shows more. Note that we said "needs" and not "wants". A person with a toothache needs dentistry, but wants codine or some other pain-killer.

In many cases the populace (both here and in the Third World) do not know what they need, only what they have been told that they need, or have been programmed into needing (or at least thinking that they need). Who is it that told them what to need, or what to think that they need? Why the Media and the Church have of course. Whose message is being disseminated? The power-elite's, naturally.

The media broadcasts intimidation of a spiritual nature in addition to that part that is political intimidation. So much so that the purely political intimidation is easily masked in the bombast and rhetoric. It is there none the less.

The critical point in the production of a news story is the Assignment Editor or Assignment Desk. The best story in the world isn't going to get aired or published if no-one is assigned to cover the story. The next critical point is the editor(s) involved. A stroke of the blue pencil can cancel out hours or days of hard work and honest reporting (if there is such a thing). Another stroke of the same blue pencil can insert some credulous junk that has nothing to do with the story. The film editor or tape editor can take a perfectly good story filmed or taped in the field, and make incoherent hash out of it, completely destroying the good image that the patriot has made before the camera, and make him or her sound (and look) like an ignorant fool. The editor, by picking and choosing what to air, and what to cut, can completely reverse the sense of anything said, filmed or taped.

Teenage Arsonist Given 5 Years Probation

HARTFORD, Conn. — An Orthodox Jewish teen-ager, who pleaded guilty to setting fire to two synagogues and the homes of his rabbi and a Jewish state legislator, has been sentenced to five years probation.

Barry Dov Schuss will not go to jail under the sentencing agreement worked out between the state prosecutor and Connecticut Superior Judge John Brennan. Schuss also received a 14-year suspended sentence.

Schuss, 17, pleaded guilty in January to four counts of arsons. Authorities charged him with setting fire to the Young Israel of West Hartford and the Emanuel Synagogue in West Hartford as well as the homes of his rabbi, Solomon Krupka, and state Rep. Joan Kemler. He surrendered to police in December.

Schuss was being treated at a psychiatric facility in Connecticut when he committed the arsons. The judge ruled that the facility must notify authorities any time it releases Schuss.

The youth's lawyer, John Droric, said that after the five years probation, the psychiatric facility need not notify authorities when he is released.

Rabbi Krupka, whose home was a victim of one arson, said he was satisfied with the sentencing.

BIGGEST CROWD EVER—

The biggest crowd ever to attend a baseball game — 100,000 spectators — was assembled not in the U.S., but in Germany.

On the night of Aug. 12, 1936, two teams of American amateurs played a seven-inning exhibition game in Berlin's Olympic Stadium, site of that year's Olympics. The contest was intended to introduce Europeans to our national pastime. But despite pregame lectures on the sport in three languages, most spectators watched in hopeless confusion, cheering with equal enthusiasm whether the ball was a base hit or an easy out.

Not everyone in the stands was taken with the strange American import. Many complained that there were too many players standing still at any given moment. Better lighting might have helped too; in the glare of the lights, the crowd often had trouble following the ball.

The biggest cheer of the evening came before the game, when the American players lined up on the field and gave the Nazi salute.

There have always been at least two realities.

In the West we have always had the reality of the "official", the official news, the official attitudes, the official, expected responses to be made by people who are officials to the public, or by the public to officials. But very little of this "officialdom" was believed or accepted by the masses up until the dawn of the 20th century. They were too close to the stark realities of their backbreaking farm labor to accept the distorted, reality-warped pronouncements of officialdom.

Modern Americans like to believe that the West was hopelessly "unhip" to the sinister doings of officialdom prior to Watergate. But this is not so. Watergate was merely a redressment, a return to a former skepticism.

In the 19th century the American continent played host to the somewhat weird phenomenon of the Minstrel Show; White men masquerading as negroes and putting on political satires, zany skits and displays of rapier wit. This is reminiscent of the bardic heritage of Britain and of the wandering troubadours of Albigenian France immortalized by Ezra Pound.

In the post-Watergate period, which the "Yuppies", who've been raised on a septic-tank full of misinformation since nativity, regard as archly-aware and cynical, we have no national or even regional counterpart to the American minstrel tradition or the European bardic one. Of course we have plenty of "folk singers" mouthing the canned, fake "alternatives" to the System, which are all a part of the System (leftwing activists come to mind).

But we have no comedian-singer-entertainers as our great grand-daddy's had who really cover profoundly taboo political and social subjects with panache and comedic brilliance. In other words, we have no entertainers and edifiers who communicate the language of the other reality, the reality opposed to official reality, the one we live and speak to our wives, girlfriends, friends and relatives.

The current system makes every attempt to appeal to this other reality and make the claim that the official reality reflects people's reality in various "alternatives": whether it be Levi jeans commercials, Coke (the "real thing"), Music TV or the kosher Left and kosher Right wings of the political spectrum.

Specifically, what is this other reality? The fact that this question needs to be asked and described in reply, shows how far we are on the road to national death.

The official reality has so invaded what is truly normal and natural in our thinking and speaking that, for the first time in our history, it threatens to invade our minds and take over completely.

But this is not all bad. This writer is not going to launch into an inventory of all that is wrong with the world. Most of our readers already know to what depths we have sunk. But the point is, that in past centuries the phony, official reality inhabited only 1% of our mental and cultural cognition. It was a very powerful 1% which could get a family wiped out for denying or opposing this or that feature of it, in a serious, revolutionary way. But for the majority of Western humanity, the overwhelming reality was their personal, cultural, instinctual knowledge and heritage about the real world around them—diametrically opposed to the official.

The masses of White Christians of the 19th century who attended a White people's minstrel show would be greeted by raucous, bawdy but very clever humor and antics, lightning-fast banjo and fiddle music and a long, side-splitting, hilarious political satire which held the official reality and the officials who pushed it, up to scathing ridicule and put-down.

One can see the function of this wonderful White people's entertainment; it acted as a spiritual and cultural balancing rod for keeping the people's vision in perspective by lambasting the pompous, powerful and evil vision of the officials with that greatest weapon, humor.

Most importantly, and this was a key point, this was done based on the authentic native wisdom, healthy prejudices and basic folk knowledge of the people. These minstrels were the vox populi. They were not trying to secretly shepherd the people to some special plateau; perhaps that was their limitation, but it was also the minstrel's saving grace of trust in the eyes of the people.

Now the modern liberal can reply to this that he knows plenty of folksingers and comedians of national celebrity status, who denounce and mock with power and wit the leading generals, politicians and Establishment figures of our day. This is undeniably true. But this satire is what is properly termed "soft satire" or "shepherded satire"; the real power behind official America in 1984 is never criticized by these liberal-left satirists and singers, and the other reality which we have posited against the official one, is never summoned up in the satires.

PLO backs Israelis!

From ATALLAH MANSOUR
Jerusalem

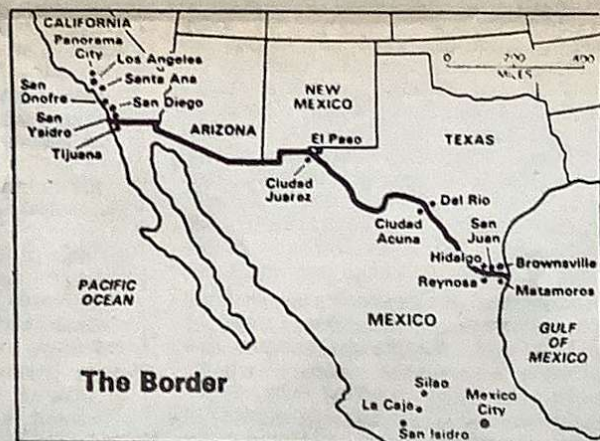

At an international conference in Bulgaria earlier this month, a Palestine Liberation Organisation delegate said that he would refuse to participate if the Israeli delegates were barred from attending.

The row blew up at the so-called "regional conference for the freedom of the press in the Middle East." Among those due to attend were Arab journalists from the occupied territories and East Jerusalem, and two Israelis — Mr Amnon Kapeliuk, a Jew, who writes for various ultra-Leftist publications, and Mr Emil Habibi, the editor of the Communist (Democratic Front for Peace and Equality) paper, "Al Ittihad."

The Arabs from the occupied territories and East Jerusalem failed to arrive, but the two Israelis did. The Syrian and Iraqi delegates immediately declared that they would not sit down with Israelis.

The PLO delegate, Mohammed Suleiman, the editor of El Fatah weekly called "Al Theura," published in Nicosia, protested, and he had his way. The Israelis remained, while the Syrian and the Iraqi walked out.

Yasir Arafat, the leader of the PLO, has agreed to postpone for a week the scheduled meeting of the Palestine National Council.

entertainment; it acted as a spiritual and cultural balancing rod for keeping the people's vision in perspective by lambasting the pompous, powerful and evil vision of the officials with that greatest weapon, humor.

Most importantly, and this was a key point, this was done based on the authentic native wisdom, healthy prejudices and basic folk knowledge of the people. These minstrels were the vox populi. They were not trying to secretly shepherd the people to some special plateau; perhaps that was their limitation, but it was also the minstrel's saving grace of trust in the eyes of the people.

Now the modern liberal can reply to this that he knows plenty of folksingers and comedians of national celebrity status, who denounce and mock with power and wit the leading generals, politicians and Establishment figures of our day. This is undeniably true. But this satire is what is properly termed "soft satire" or "shepherded satire"; the real power behind official America in 1984 is never criticized by these liberal-left satirists and singers, and the other reality which we have posited against the official one, is never summoned up in the satires.

PLO backs Israelis!

From ATALLAH MANSOUR
Jerusalem

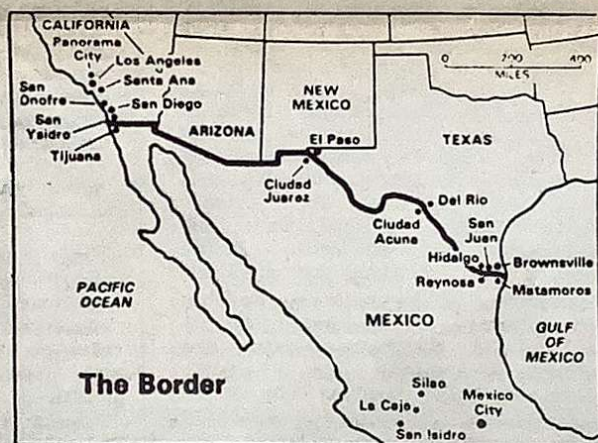

At an international conference in Bulgaria earlier this month, a Palestine Liberation Organisation delegate said that he would refuse to participate if the Israeli delegates were barred from attending.

The row blew up at the so-called "regional conference for the freedom of the press in the Middle East." Among those due to attend were Arab journalists from the occupied territories and East Jerusalem, and two Israelis—Mr Amnon Kapeliuk, a Jew, who writes for various ultra-Leftist publications, and Mr Emil Habibi, the editor of the Communist (Democratic Front for Peace and Equality) paper, "Al Ittihad."

The Arabs from the occupied territories and East Jerusalem failed to arrive, but the two Israelis did. The Syrian and Iraqi delegates immediately declared that they would not sit down with Israelis.

The PLO delegate, Mohammed Suleiman, the editor of El Fatah weekly called "Al Theura," published in Nicosia, protested, and he had his way. The Israelis remained, while the Syrian and the Iraqi walked out.

Yasir Arafat, the leader of the PLO, has agreed to postpone for a week the scheduled meeting of the Palestine National Council.

It's a non-border border

A concerted press campaign in the West prophesies doom for the White-Slavic Russians as they drown in a wave of Islamic Asians - all by the year 2000. Our own essay, "Race War in Russia" (published by Attack! in New Zealand), pointed out that the Muslims are overwhelmingly confined to Central Asia and the South Caucasus. As they are not integrated into the Soviet mainstream, the Russians could survive the non-White population explosion by simply dumping the Islamic, largely Turkomanic republics back into the Asiatic cesspool, controlled, of course, by Red-Muslim puppet regimes.

An American comrade in Iowa has sent strong confirmation for this thesis in the form of a scholarly article analyzing population trends in the USSR. We refer to Chapter 4, "Soviet Islam in Perspective - Muslims and Russians in the Year 2000", from the book "The Islamic Threat To The Soviet State", by A. Bennigsen and M. Broxup, St. Martin's Press, N.Y., 1983.

To begin: the Soviet population in the year 2000 will number between 300 and 310 million. Russians will account for 150 million, and other Slavs (Bylorussians and Ukrainians) for 55 million. White Slavs will thus hold a clear majority of 205 million. There are also some 15 million other Whites (Lithuanians, Moldavians, Germans, Latvians, Estonians, Poles, etc.). One may add the Georgians (3.5 million), East Finns (4.5 million), Ossetes and Circassians (1 million), even Chuvash (1.8 million), Armenians (4.2 million), etc.

Muslims will grow to 66 or 75 million (birth rates are erratic) - for 22 to 25% of the population. Central Asian Turks will comprise 50 million; the south Caucasus Turks (Azeris) 9 million; and the Mid-Volga/Urals Tatars and Bashkirs another 9 million. The Islamic Chechen-Ingush (2 million) and Dagestanis (2.5 million) of the Caspian east Caucasus are at least Caucasoids, while the North Ossetes and various Circassians (over 1 million) of the North Caucasus are definitely White men, albeit Islamized. Also holding the South Caucasus are Christian and primarily White Georgians (3.5 million) and South Ossetes, along with the Christian Armenians (4.2 million).

The Russians and kindred Whites massively hold European Russia, the North Caucasus, Siberia, and northern Kazakhstan (the latter SSR being 40% Russian and Ukrainian). Only two large pockets of Islamic Turks remain in Russia, the Volga-Tatars and Ural-Bashkirs. However, over 1 million Tatars (one-sixth of the population) have already immigrated to Central Asia (the Tatar ASSR is now over 52% Russian), while 70,000 Bashkirs have left for Central Asia (the Bashkir ASSR now 40% Russian). By 2000, over 2 million Tatars and Bashkirs could be in Central Asia.

The following population trends are foreseen for A.D. 2000:

(1) the concentration of Muslim populations in their national territories.

(2) the resulting reduction in immigrant minorities.

WAR Staff Canadian Correspondent

Racial Results

A slow-down of Russian and other European immigration to Muslim areas will occur, with the almost total absence of Muslim emigration from their national homelands. Muslim territories will steadily "go native". The last 20 years has shown a Muslim refusal to emigrate from what they still consider as Dar ul-Islam.

A Muslim reconquista of their homelands will occur, along with the death of the communist dream of the "getting nearer" (sbizhenie) of all ethnic groups. The emigration of Tatars and Bashkirs away from European Russia and Siberia to Central Asia will continue. Minimal Muslim immigration will occur to industrial or rural areas of European Russia and Siberia. Russian and other European migration to Central Asia has already ended, while a new wave of Russians and other Whites in Asia will immigrate back to European Russia.

In 2000, Central Asia will see Europeans a discernable minority, strong enough only to encourage a climate of growing xenophobia. Rural colonies of Whites will disappear from Central Asia (except in Kazakhstan). Muslims will dominate all major cities in Central Asia (except possibly Alma Ata in S.E. Kazakh SSR, and Frunze in Kirghiz SSR, the latter presently 26% Russian). Mixed marriages will become - as before 1928 - a rare exception. The Communist dream of a mixed-race "Soviet Man" will be seen as impossible.

Soviet Armed Forces

By 2000, Muslims eligible for the draft (males over 18) will be 29% of the total (up from 23.5% in 1980). Slavs will constitute 61% (down from 67% in 1979) - the Russians bearing 45% (down from 49%).

"As a rule Central Asians and Caucasian Moslems are not drafted into fighting units but into construction battalions and special internal security units directed by the Ministry of Internal Affairs (MVD), for riot control and the guarding of the extensive network of Soviet penal institutions."

The Russians could grasp the nettle and increase the number of non-Slavs in military positions now reserved for Slavs, but this would raise fears of what the Russians call the "yellowing of the Red Army".

The alternative is the reduction in the size of the armed forces, but this solution seems unlikely in the presence of a hostile China and the build-up of U.S. military-power.

Racial Conclusion

The article concludes that both industrially and militarily the USSR leadership will attempt to muddle-through; neither relocating industry to Central Asia (as urged by Marxist specialists), nor Turks to European Russia; neither will they increase the number of Turks in key military posts.

An intermediary measure will be to increase the size of the Russian population by the intensified Russification and assimilation of the isolated minorities of Germans (1.93 million), Poles (1.15 million), East Finns (4.5 million), Christian Turko-Finns (Chuvash and Gagauz: 2 million), Jews (2 million) and those Ukrainians, Belorussians, Moldavians, and Volga-Tatars living beyond their national territories. This assimilation, which is already succeeding, would by 2000 produce 175 million Russians, added to the 55 million Ukrainians and Belorussians, the 15 million other Whites (Liths, Letts, Eths, Moldavs, etc.), along with the Georgians (3.5 million), Ossetes and Circassians (1 million), expatriate Black Sea Greeks and Bulgarians, and Armenians (4.2 million).

If the racial situation in the USSR is compared to that of the United States or Britain, the Russian future appears almost idyllic. Will Russia become, as in ages past, the ultimate stronghold of the White race? ☉

East L.A. truly a border city

Some areas are termed more Mexican than Tijuana

This is why these satires are properly called "soft". They act as clandestine "shepherding" satires because the liberals are not really of the "people", and by this it is meant the root people, not the mobs of media-brainwashed perverts in San Francisco whose hedonism and insanity, if widespread throughout America, would destroy this nation in thirty days. The real people, the root people, (not the ones created on T.V. commercials), have prejudices, beliefs and folk wisdom that run contrary to everything the kosher conservative right wing and the liberal-left wing wishes to mold Americans into.

Therefore, these modern day liberal folk singers are not calling on the reality of the common people's everyday life—their conversations with each other, their hidden feelings about the world. But by trying to change the American root people's acting and thinking — by shepherding them away from their White racial and religious loyalties (while encouraging racism in Blacks, Jews and Third world peoples) — the liberal folk singers and comedians reveal themselves as the pimps for the system that they actually are.

Any of these folk singers or comedians who sell records on the major labels or who can have their advertisements accepted for publication in the N.Y. Times or the L.A. Times are not representative of the great anti-Establishment minstrel tradition. Because the stakes are so high today, the Establishment has told so many lies that cannot stand up to even the least contradiction or ridicule, no genuine populist minstrel force will get the Establishment nod.

Alright, having conceded these points if only for the moment, let's look at this counter to the official, this other reality, just what is it?

Paul Bowles is an avant-garde, "Beat" short-story master from the old Kerouac days. The darling writer of a whole lost generation sold on the tenets of love, peace, equality blah, blah, blah. Officially, Bowles is part of this great movement to "combat racism" and do away with all natural feelings of separateness that native peoples feel toward the outsider in order to preserve their own families and communities.

But that's the official reality. The other reality is quite different. Bowles recently remarked in a beatnik magazine that the nation he has chosen to live in, Morocco, has since the White Man left it after World War II and turned it over to the local Third Worlders, deteriorated into "a huge slum". When the Europeans ran Morocco, Bowles said, it was "spic and span".

This is the liberal Paul Bowles forgetting himself for a moment, forgetting the official lies and lying attitudes he was supposed to have in order to conform to the dictates of the integrationist, One World Zionist Power (who themselves refuse to mix or integrate). Bowles slipped into the other reality, our everyday normal selves, and spoke like a regular human being the truth which contradicts official left-liberal "reality" that, since the White man stopped governing Morocco, it has turned into a slum.

When several large polling organizations queried American voters before election primaries in New England and the Midwest, about whether or not they would vote for Jesse Jackson, a great number replied that they would.

But at primary time almost none did vote for Jackson and the poll-takers were bewildered, until it dawned on them that the people they questioned were just going along with official propaganda—they didn't want to seem "prejudiced" on the phone to the polltakers, they didn't want to reveal the truthful reality separate from the official BS — that they disliked Jackson because he's a loud-mouthed, racist negro and would never vote for him.

Here is our point: White Christian culture is bereft of all entertainers/balladeers willing to summon up this other reality, mirror it back to White people and thereby show that it is alright to be real! That the thoughts we think to ourselves or share only timidly among our trusted friends and associates are okay, alright, even moral! That these are the thoughts of our ancestors who were not nasty or brutish people, who conquered a continent, who built a Constitutional government and who loved their own kind, just as every other race does.

But official reality is out to destroy all of our White survival mechanisms, to invade our hearts and minds, to give us no role models and to slowly force us into tolerating anything, including our own destruction at the hands of the Death Cult of Zionism (Thanatos cult).

What we need now in this time is to call forth singers, comedians and entertainers. Perhaps in the beginning we can't all get together at a camp-out for a sing-a-long under a big fraternal tent. But we can use the modern technology of cassettes to circulate underground, reality comedy and jokes among ourselves.

We may be surprised at how many people we can reach out there through song and humor that we could never reach through somber leaflets and stark politicking.

Why? Because we would be drawing on what comes naturally, and this is the most powerful solidarity factor of all.

Think of the woman who comes home after being followed on the street by a loathsome, jibbering negro who has been speaking every manner of foul and lustful garbage into her ear with White men doing nothing about it. Is this woman going to come home and tell her husband in the words of the official world, "a poor, oppressed Black man accompanied me home and poured out the laments of his destitute soul to me?"

Or will she tell her husband, "Some filthy Black bastard harassed me all the way home and I've got to face the same thing tomorrow"? That's the real way real people feel, and we must articulate their deepest, hidden feelings in music and satire and if we do, we will have a vast audience.

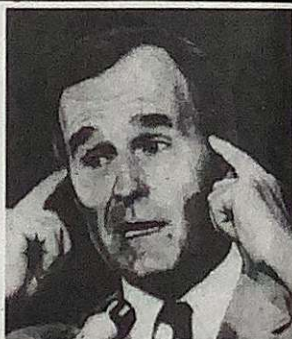

What of the landlord who must rent to a family of negroes who pose as urbane and sophisticated and then once the lease is signed, the formerly peaceful apartment building becomes a stage for evening fights, drunken parties and so forth? What of the plumber, electrician or carpenter who is cheated by a Jewish customer who squeezes the last penny out of him? (Of course we note there can be Whites who out-Jew Jew's, and Africanized White people who act as bad as negroes). But as a rule, the majority of White people continue to despise doing business with Jews or having to associate with negroes. This is the other reality. If we White Power advocates can formulate a popular art and music format to speak the language of this despair, we will go a long way toward achieving power for our political goals as well! We will turn despair into victory!

So start writing and singing those jokes and songs, try them out on your friends to find out what works and record them on cassette! ☐

Carlson for Congress Committee 15th District of Michigan

• DETROIT FREE PRESS/THURSDAY, NOV. 8, 1984

Candidate with ties to Nazis, Klan gets 40% of vote in 15th District

CARLSON SET THE PACE

Gerald Carlson, well known White Nationalist, ran for Congress in the 15th District of Michigan. Carlson ran as a Republican against Democrat William R. Ford, incumbent. The vote tally shows a significant increase over Carlson's 1980 bid.

Carlson received 40% of the vote, compared to 60% his rival received. (64,918 to 98,111). In 1980 Carlson received 32% of the vote.

We understand that the 15th District has a heavy Democrat constituency. Carlson had to have drawn a sizable White worker vote from both Republican and Democrat parties. Much of the Republican upper middle class and fat cats would obviously choose to stay home or even vote for the sleaze factor. High percentages of non-Whites would also join the opponent's camp. However, your editor is not aware of the racial makeup of the 15th District.

In summation, we must all congratulate our courageous friend for a very important job well done. These statistics are vital as a thermometer on regional attitudes. Leaders throughout the country must analyze each race where a White Nationalist is involved. Such figures will show the direction of future public information and political activity.

As one who has ran in three political races, I know the drudgery and exhaustive work that goes into a campaign.

Another piece of slick legislation designed to make life more comfortable for the "chosen ones" is California's AB 3891.

This will exempt reparation payments made by the West German government to gassing (?) survivors from their countable income when their MediCal eligibility is determined.

Assemblyman Burt Margolian (D- Los Angeles) said that the new law will "end the cruel discrimination that's been applied to those gassing survivors who are frail and elderly."

Recent releases from South African Jews make it clear where their sympathies lie. "Jews and Blacks fought together in that decade for civil rights in a historic chapter in Black Jewish Association. They always have been well disposed to the African National Movement", thus spoke Percy Queboza, Editor of the Golden City Press, a Black South African newspaper.

Illegal aliens blamed on system

'At bottom of it all is avarice and greed,' says lawman

Electronic editing leaves no marks, no obvious cuts or snips in the tape. Electronic editing even edits the sync pulses, and eliminates even the slightest flicker in the picture. Since all news stories are edited in this manner anyway, a little extra wouldn't be noticed. All news stories are edited, to insert the reporter's questions, and to eliminate background noise, etc. Electronic editing can make you (or anyone) appear to say "Yes", when you really said "No", or vice-versa.

A skillful editor can construct words that were never spoken, if given enough equipment and a sufficiently large amount of tape or film of the person who is speaking. The editor can remove the background from the picture and insert a different one, making it appear that the interview was held at some other location. He can put your face and voice on someone else's body. He can change the clothing that the person was wearing, taking you out of uniform or putting you in one (prison garb for example).

Note: the power elite only employ skillful editors.

The most obvious, but nearly the least important critical point is the attitude and personality of the reporter sent out to cover the story. If the Assignment Editor wants the story covered in a particular manner, he doesn't have to tell the reporter how to cover it (but he might). All he has to do is assign (for example) a black to cover a K.K.K. meeting, or a Jew to cover a Nazi reunion, and you know what kind of a story he'll get back, don't you?

The next time you see a "controversial" item on the news, pay attention to who it was (or what it was) that covered the story. What kind of natural bias (or even unnatural bias) did the reporter exhibit? What subtle facial expressions or voice inflections or body language did the reporter use to convey approval or disapproval of the subject he or she was covering? What stupid or leading questions did the reporter ask? What important or critical questions did the reporter not ask? Note that women reporters tend to do this, and get away with it more than male reporters do.

Always remember that the media only presents what they want you to see or hear or read. There is always another side even to the simplest story, sometimes several other sides. Take for example crime stories. Many T.V. stations conceal far more than they broadcast. Some make it a point to never specify the race of the suspect unless it is a White person. Frequently, you have no way of telling, especially if they don't broadcast the description or photograph. Oh, yes, they'll say plenty about the poor abused "minority" victim (leading you to assume it was a White person who committed this terrible act — whatever it was) when in fact the suspect is himself another "minority".

On other occasions, the story is only broadcast once, at 2:00 a.m. and not another word is said for the

LETTERS

I was pleased to see the article, "Subliminal Advertising" in Vol.3, #3 of W.A.R. However, I'd like to point out what I believe may be some misunderstandings on the part of the author.

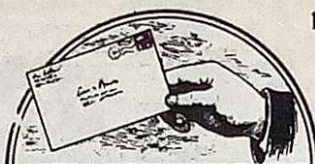

First, the writer states that "what we perceive subconsciously will vary depending on what and how strongly we are concentrating on something else." Apparently, he means that the "subliminal" is only so when we do not focus on it; were we to change our focus, the unconscious would become conscious. I believe that this is a dangerous misunderstanding. It derives from the reluctance of the conscious mind (in this case, that of the writer) to admit that it is not in control, or could not be if it simply made the attempt. I have found, in my discussions with people, that very few of them want to believe that the human psyche perceives and processes much more information than that of which the conscious portion of that mind is aware. This, apparently, is a very threatening concept.

Dr. William Key, a former Canadian professor who now resides in Nevada, has written a series of books on subliminal advertising, the best of which is the first, "Subliminal Seduction" (available in paperback). Key states that "no significant belief or attitude held by any individual is apparently made on the basis of consciously perceived data." The conscious mind, to Key's way of thinking, is primarily a defense attorney who rationalizes what the unconscious has already determined to do.

Key teaches that it is apparently always via the subliminal, or unconscious route, that we are convinced. For example, listeners to a Tom Metzger speech are probably not convinced by his arguments. Rather they have sought out his arguments in order to shore up a conviction already implanted via largely unconscious means, that no one, at this point, really rest of the entire broadcast day. Yet again, the same story can and frequently is given in widely differing manners, from one station to the next. The more liberal the station or newspaper, the less likely they are to report anything negative about "minorities". Only when that minority is a "White" minority will they go out of their way to say something negative. "Conventional" minorities (religious or otherwise) enjoy the same liberal shielding that racial minorities receive, unless of course they could be considered "White minorities" (which most of the media view as being equal to "Devil Worship" or worse).

The media gets very excited when they think that their First Amendment Freedom of Press is being infringed upon, but they don't seem to give a thought to anyone else's rights, particularly the rights of the productive, tax-paying, law-abiding, hard-working, long suffering White Majority. ☉ understands. Madison Avenue hucksters simply try to take advantage of a fact — the vast importance of the subconscious route that priests have known for thousands of generations. Joseph Campbell, the mythologist, has stated that the attempt by the conscious mind to supplant the dominant role of the unconscious has long been described in mythological/religious symbolic language as "putting Satan on the throne of God".

Key does not believe that the sex and death imagery airbrushed into print advertising and filtered into television commercials via sophisticated technology are just "artists' jokes". He believes that they are calculated efforts on the part of the Madison Avenue gang to sell products. (By the way, the tachistoscopic technique once used to sell popcorn in the movies and used as an example in the W.A.R. article, is today considered crude and completely outmoded by modern, totally undetectable techniques.)

In Subliminal Seduction, Key pays very little attention to the type of "subliminal" persuasion that the W.A.R. writer discusses, i.e., the constant juxtaposition of violent, shocking imagery with "control words" such as "White Racism". In fact, Key avoids getting into any areas that would cause the Jews who control the bookstore racks to keep him off the shelves. I have no reason to believe that he would agree with any of our positions. However, if his views are even partially correct, if he is not an "intentional liar" as the W.A.R. writer apparently believes, then he deserves our attention. Certainly, all of us who are concerned with changing the minds of our kinfolk must learn as much as we can about how people are really convinced. Otherwise, we may find that we will — literally — just talk ourselves to death.

Cordially, G. D.

Illegals make life miserable

EDITOR:

I will be most interested to hear if other readers have a similar problem to ours.

We live opposite Quail Gardens on a hill, bordering a field and have had Mexicans squatting nearby for a very long time.

Until this year there were no problems. However, it has changed for the worse this summer, and it is quite scary as they have become so belligerent and aggressive.

Apparently because they were cooking under the trees the owner came and bulldozed those lovely trees down! Now they have moved to the bottom of my neighbor's garden, where they do everything in full view of us all, and I do mean everything!

Our view lots now overlook a sort of garbage dump and smells like one too when the wind is in a certain direction! We have not been able to sit out there this summer nor barbecue, as the flies are just terrible.

Now and again, a young girl (not Hispanic) arrives and they all line up to take their turn. What disgusts us, too, is that there is no way she can wash and takes one after the other so one wonders what sort of disease is being spread.

They lie on our bank and flatten our African daisies, which were put there to hold the bank together, and leave their beer bottles, etc. for us to clean up.

No one wants to do anything about this problem except the Health Dept., who did send someone to look and agreed that it was a health and fire hazard, and said they would try to contact the owner of the field, but so far no result.

I wonder if Mr. Ecke or Mr. Thornton would like to have these men permanently camped just outside their back door?

YES, I believe the WAR Journal is an important vehicle of providing information to White People. Enclosed is my contribution of $ _____. Please continue sending the WAR Journal to me.

IMPORTANT! If we do not hear from you after three issues, we must assume you are not interested in our approach and you will be dropped from our roles.

This is not meant for W. A. R. contributing editors, leaders of other White Racist organizations, and those of you who do send in regular contributions.

Other than Senior Citizens solely on Social Security, I can not think of anyone other than a White prisoner who cannot contribute a minimum of $1.00/$2.00 for important racial news.

Those in the Social Security only bracket, or White prisoners, must inform us by mail of this status to remain on the mailing list.

Books

A number of people have asked us for a booklist. W.A.R. does not handle book sales for a number of obvious reasons, namely lack of storage space for a useable quantity and the ready availability of reading materials from the source of the materials needed. We would like to refer anyone interested in any Nationalist Racist books, pamphlets, etc, and/or any related White Cultural Literature items to: Liberty Bell Publications, P.O. Box 21, Reedy, West Virginia, 25270.
